POLICIES/INFORMATION

Areas of Concentration. Students seeking the Open Studies degree will select three academic areas in which to concentrate their work and will arrange for a faculty advisor in each of those areas to oversee their work in each area. The areas of study must represent three distinct academic disciplines at Minnesota State University. The student must file a plan of study that provides a reason for choosing these areas of study and that demonstrates why the proposed work cannot be accomplished under the usual major-and-minor(s) format at MSU.

Continuation in Program. The following rules explain the requirements for a student to continue in the Open Studies program and to receive a university degree. The Open Studies major must:

- Maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.80.
- Apply grades of A, B and C to the three areas unless specific courses are offered only on a P/NC basis.
- Complete the university's general-education program.
- Complete at least 64 upper-division semester credits.
- Complete a minimum of 15 semester credits of study in each of the three selected academic areas of concentration. A faculty advisor in each area must be willing to serve on a committee with the Open Studies director to oversee the student's work.
- Complete a capstone project synthesizing the areas of concentration. The completed project must be acceptable to members of the student's committee.
